10 In this question you must show detailed reasoning.

The equation of a curve is $y = \frac{x^2}{4} + \frac{2}{x} + 1$. A tangent and a normal to the curve are drawn at the point where $x = 2$.

Calculate the area bounded by the tangent, the normal and the x-axis. [10]