14 Victoria throws an ordinary fair 6-sided dice once.

She says,

"The probability of getting a 3 is half the probability of getting a 6"

(a) Is Victoria correct?
You must explain your answer.

(1)

Andy throws the dice twice.
He says,

"The probability of getting a 6 on both throws is $\frac{2}{6}$"

(b) Is Andy correct?
You must explain your answer.

(1)

Indre throws the dice once.
She also throws a coin to get Heads or Tails.

(c) List all the possible outcomes she can get.

(2)

(Total for Question 14 is 4 marks)