

| Question | Working | Answer | Mark                                                 | Notes                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|----------|---------|--------|------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 15       |         | 2.63   | P1P1P1P1A1 | for setting up the expression <math>\frac{1}{2}(x + 3)(2x - 1) \sin 45</math> (may be seen in an equation) (dep) for expanding the brackets in the expression or for the equation <math>\frac{1}{2}(x + 3)(2x - 1) \sin 45 = 6\sqrt{2}</math> oe (dep) for the process to set up the equation and rearrange to the form <math>ax^2 + bx + c = d</math> e.g. to <math>2x^2 + 5x - 27 = 0</math> or <math>24 = 2x^2 + 5x - 3</math> (dep) for substitution into the quadratic formula e.g. <math>\frac{-5 \pm \sqrt{5^2 - 4 \times 2 \times -27}}{4}</math> for 2.63(10436...) |