

| Question |     | Answer          | Mark | Mark scheme                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Additional guidance                                                                              |
|----------|-----|-----------------|------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 17       | (a) | histogram drawn | B3   | for fully correct histogram, eg. relative heights 90, 96, 44, 8, 6                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                  |
|          |     |                 | (B2  | for 4 correct barsorfor frequency ÷ class interval for all 5 frequencies and 2 correct bars of different widths)                                                                                 |                                                                                                  |
|          |     |                 | (B1  | for 2 correct bars of different widthsorfor frequency ÷ class interval for at least 3 frequencies)                                                                                                      |                                                                                                  |
|          | (b) | 0.4 n    | M1   | for finding ratio of heights or widths of bars, eg 5 : 1 or $\frac{1}{5}$ , 1 : 2or$\frac{n}{5}$ oe or 2 n oe as answerorcompares areas of bars, eg 6 and 2.4 or 3 and 1.2 or 150 and 60 |                                                                                                  |
|          |     |                 | A1   | for 0.4 n oe                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                  |
|          |     |                 |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Evidence for this mark may be seen on the diagramAny 2 numbers in the ratio 2.5 : 1 score M1 |