

Question	Answer	Mark	Mark scheme
10	Explanation	C1	for full explanation indicating the problem with the negative signs Acceptable examples He should have $+2x + 4$ on the second line He should have done $- -4$ and $- -2x$ $3x - -2x = 5x$, not $1x$ Two minuses make a plus which he didn't account for Not acceptable examples He has not expanded the brackets Peter has to factorise first He did not collect the terms He didn't include the x^2