

| Question | Answer | Mark | Mark scheme                                                                                                                                                                       | Additional guidance                                                                                                                                                                          |
|----------|--------|------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5        | 2      | P1   | for process to find volume of tineg $600 \div 0.6 (= 1000)$                                                                                                                   | Award P1 for $600 \div 0.6 (= 1000)$ even if not used                                                                                                                                        |
|          |        | P1   | for process to find volume of salteg “1000” – 700 (= 300)                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|          |        | P1   | for a process to find density of the salteg $600 \div \text{“300”}$or$0.6 \times (\text{“1000”} \div \text{“300”})$or$600 \div [\text{volume}]$ |                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|          |        | A1   | cao                                                                                                                                                                               | [volume] can be 700 or from a seen calculation using “1000”, “300”, 700 or identified as volume by label or formula or unitsA correct answer with no supportive working gets 0 marks |